

THE SERENELLI PROJECT HAS ACQUIRED ITS FIRST PERMANENT RESIDENCE

On Friday, May 6, the Serenelli Project closed on its first property on Delhi Avenue in Sedamsville. They hope to have residents in the new home by the end of the year. The newly-purchased house will not be a half way house, but a permanent residence that will offer a stable Catholic faith community to men returning to civic life.

Mary Arlinghaus, founder of the Serenelli Project, with board member Steve Hendy joyfully holding a St. Maria Goretti relic after closing on the program's first property.

Father Jeff Stegbauer blessing the property located in the Cincinnati neighborhood of Sedamsville.

To find out more about the Serenelli Project, please visit www.serenelliproject.org.

To support the mission of the Serenelli Project, you can donate at www.serenelliproject.org/support-us.